BRIDGE IN THE PARK

SPRING 2012 EVENTS AND OUTINGS

Thursday, March 15, 7:00-8:30 p.m.
Mercer Slough Environmental Learning Center

From the 300+ acre Mercer Slough urban wetland park to current initiatives to activate alleys as public spaces, Jones & Jones works are integral to the fabric of Seattle’s cityscape and region. Join Tom Carlson and Ilze Jones to explore the changing face of nature in Seattle and new opportunities for a connected city.

Urban Greenway Ramble

Wednesday, April 11, 9:30-12 noon
Meet at Children’s Playgarden

On this walk we will begin with a tour of the Children’s Playgarden, and then follow the Mountain to Sound Greenway to Lewis Park on Beacon Hill, passing little known parks and stunning viewpoints along the way.

A Duwamish Birding Adventure

Saturday, April 14, 9:00-12 noon
Join Master Birder and interpretive guide Woody Wheeler on a tour of two urban parks along an otherwise heavily industrialized stretch of the Duwamish River in Seattle—Herring’s House Park and Jack Block Park. We should see 20-30 species of birds and one or two species of marine mammals on this trip. Plan on 1-2 miles of easy walking.
Meet at Herring’s House Park

Springtime in Kubota Gardens

Friday, May 11, 10:00-12 noon
Kubota Gardens
Join Senior Gardener Don Brooks at Kubota Gardens in South Seattle for a tour of this spectacular site during the peak of its spring bloom.
